Used and collected data

In the study we collect:

- Demographic data
- Sensitivity to visual and audio stimuli
- Free-form feedback

Usage Purpose of the Collected Data

- Conduction of the experiment as part of a research project, as well as potential consecutive projects concerning visualization research conducted at VISUS and usage of the evaluated data in respective scientific publications.

At VISUS we are doing research regarding the development and design of visualizations. The study „Rhythm Error Perception“ wants to evaluate differences in the perceptual sensitivity between audio and visualization stimuli.

By not agreeing to the data collection there will be no consequences. However, a participation in the study is not possible.

Legal Basis

1. Conduction of the survey as part of a research project

Art. 6 Paragraph. 1 lit. e together Art. 6 Paragraph. 3 Datenschutz-Grundverordnung (DS-GVO) together with § 13 Abs.1 Landesdatenschutzgesetz Baden-Württemberg, Art. 6 Paragraph. 1 lit. c in Verbindung mit §§ 70, 75 Landeshaushaltsordnung.

2 Optional Agreement to further usage

Art. 6 Paragraph. 1 lit. a DS-GVO

Data Recipients

- Evaluated Research Data: Worldwide readers /users of scientific publications.
- Raw Data within a repository: users that have been permitted to use the data within the university and the provider of the repository within the university. For reviewing processes for scientific publications, the raw data could be passed to the reviewers and the publisher.

The data above can potentially also be processed outside the EU in countries, where there are no comparable data protection laws. These can mean potential restrictions of your rights.

- For receiving your compensation in cash, you have to sign a receipt and provide your address and full name. The internal accounting of the university will process this receipt.

Based on policies the university archive must be consulted before deletion of data. The archive then decides on whether or not to keep the data.

Duration of the Storage Period

- All research data are stored until 10 years after the completion of a research project.

Potentially, the concerned data will be transferred to the respective university archive, which can store it indefinitely.

Your rights

- You have the right to receive information from the university concerning the data saved in relation to your person and/or to have incorrectly saved data corrected.
- In addition, you have the right to deletion or to have the processing restricted or to object to the processing.

For this purpose, please contact the data protection officer of the University of Stuttgart via Email.
